Foreword

I will study and get ready, and perhaps my chance will come.
- A. Lincoln

America has faced a year of triumph and anxiety. While John Glenn's orbital flight has burst the barriers of space, the dividing walls of Berlin grow higher and more forbidding. While the people-to-people contacts of the peace corps has won friends, the death of Hammerskjold has shaken the foundations of our organization for world peace.

We are young, but the world does not wait until we are old and wise to lay its problems before us. We need the discipline of study and the conviction of truth before we can stand as free men and women to preserve our democracy.

Dedication

Mr. Charles R. Gibb

We, the members of the HILLTOPPER Staff, in behalf of the Senior Class of Rocky Grove High School dedicate this yearbook to you MR. CHARLES R. GIBB, in token of your nineteen years of service to the students, school, and community.

Your ability and energy has inspired us every since we first met you six years ago, and we know that the future classes will also be inspired by your dedicated service to Rocky Grove High School.

R. GLENN CARTER

PATRICIA SULLIVAN
Secretary to Mr. Carter

Seniors:

Congratulations on the completion of your high school course! You should consider this as only an integral part of your total formal education. Continue to prepare yourselves for your life work.

Always strive to be grateful, responsible, resourceful citizens and do carefully guard your American heritage of freedom.

Best wishes for a happy, prosperous and satisfying future.

R. GLENN CARTER
Superintendent

Seniors:

To you eager crusaders now starting out on a new adventure, remember that there are two great parts to any endeavor - the beginning and the end. You are about to begin a new program with great enthusiasm; you may, however, bog down; but industry, the professions, and the world are clamoring for those who can finish things.

ARDELL L. FEELEY
High School Principal

Valley Grove Board of School Directors

With the major problems of meeting state requirements and awarding contracts for the high school addition out of the way, this year the board has been concerned with such duties as purchasing furniture and equipment for the homemaking, industrial arts and other departments.

Also this year a new revision of the policies of the school district has been printed.

They have been occupied with the updating of the older buildings in the district in compliance with state requirements.

From time to time the board has invited faculty members to inform their members concerning the works of their departments.

School directors are elected by the citizens of the community to establish policies which reflect the ideas of these citizens in the administration of the school.

Senior Class Officers

Class History

We first came together as a class in 1956 when we entered junior high. In these carefree years we found new friends and thoughtfully looked forward to high school.

Our class ties became stronger when we elected officers in our junior year.

Our first taste of the theater came when we presented "Meet Me at the Prom" - a teen-age comedy with songs and dances.

Inspired by our two years of French, we hosted the seniors at a gay prom, "Parisian Nocturne."

Suddenly we became the grand old tradition-honored seniors. Our first project was our senior dramatic production, "Midsummer Night's Scream," proving that even Shakespeare could break up a rehearsal - and a performance - with hysterical laughter.

The fellows now took active part in varsity sports while the girls cheered them on to victory.

The year all too soon draws to a close. As we depart to find new interests, we leave to the school our legacy - a hint of laughter in the halls, a smile on the stairs, and, we hope, a warm remembrance of us.

"Meet Me at the Prom"

Gaiety was the theme as we sang, danced, and joked our way through the junior play, "Meet Me at the Prom," before a capacity audience.

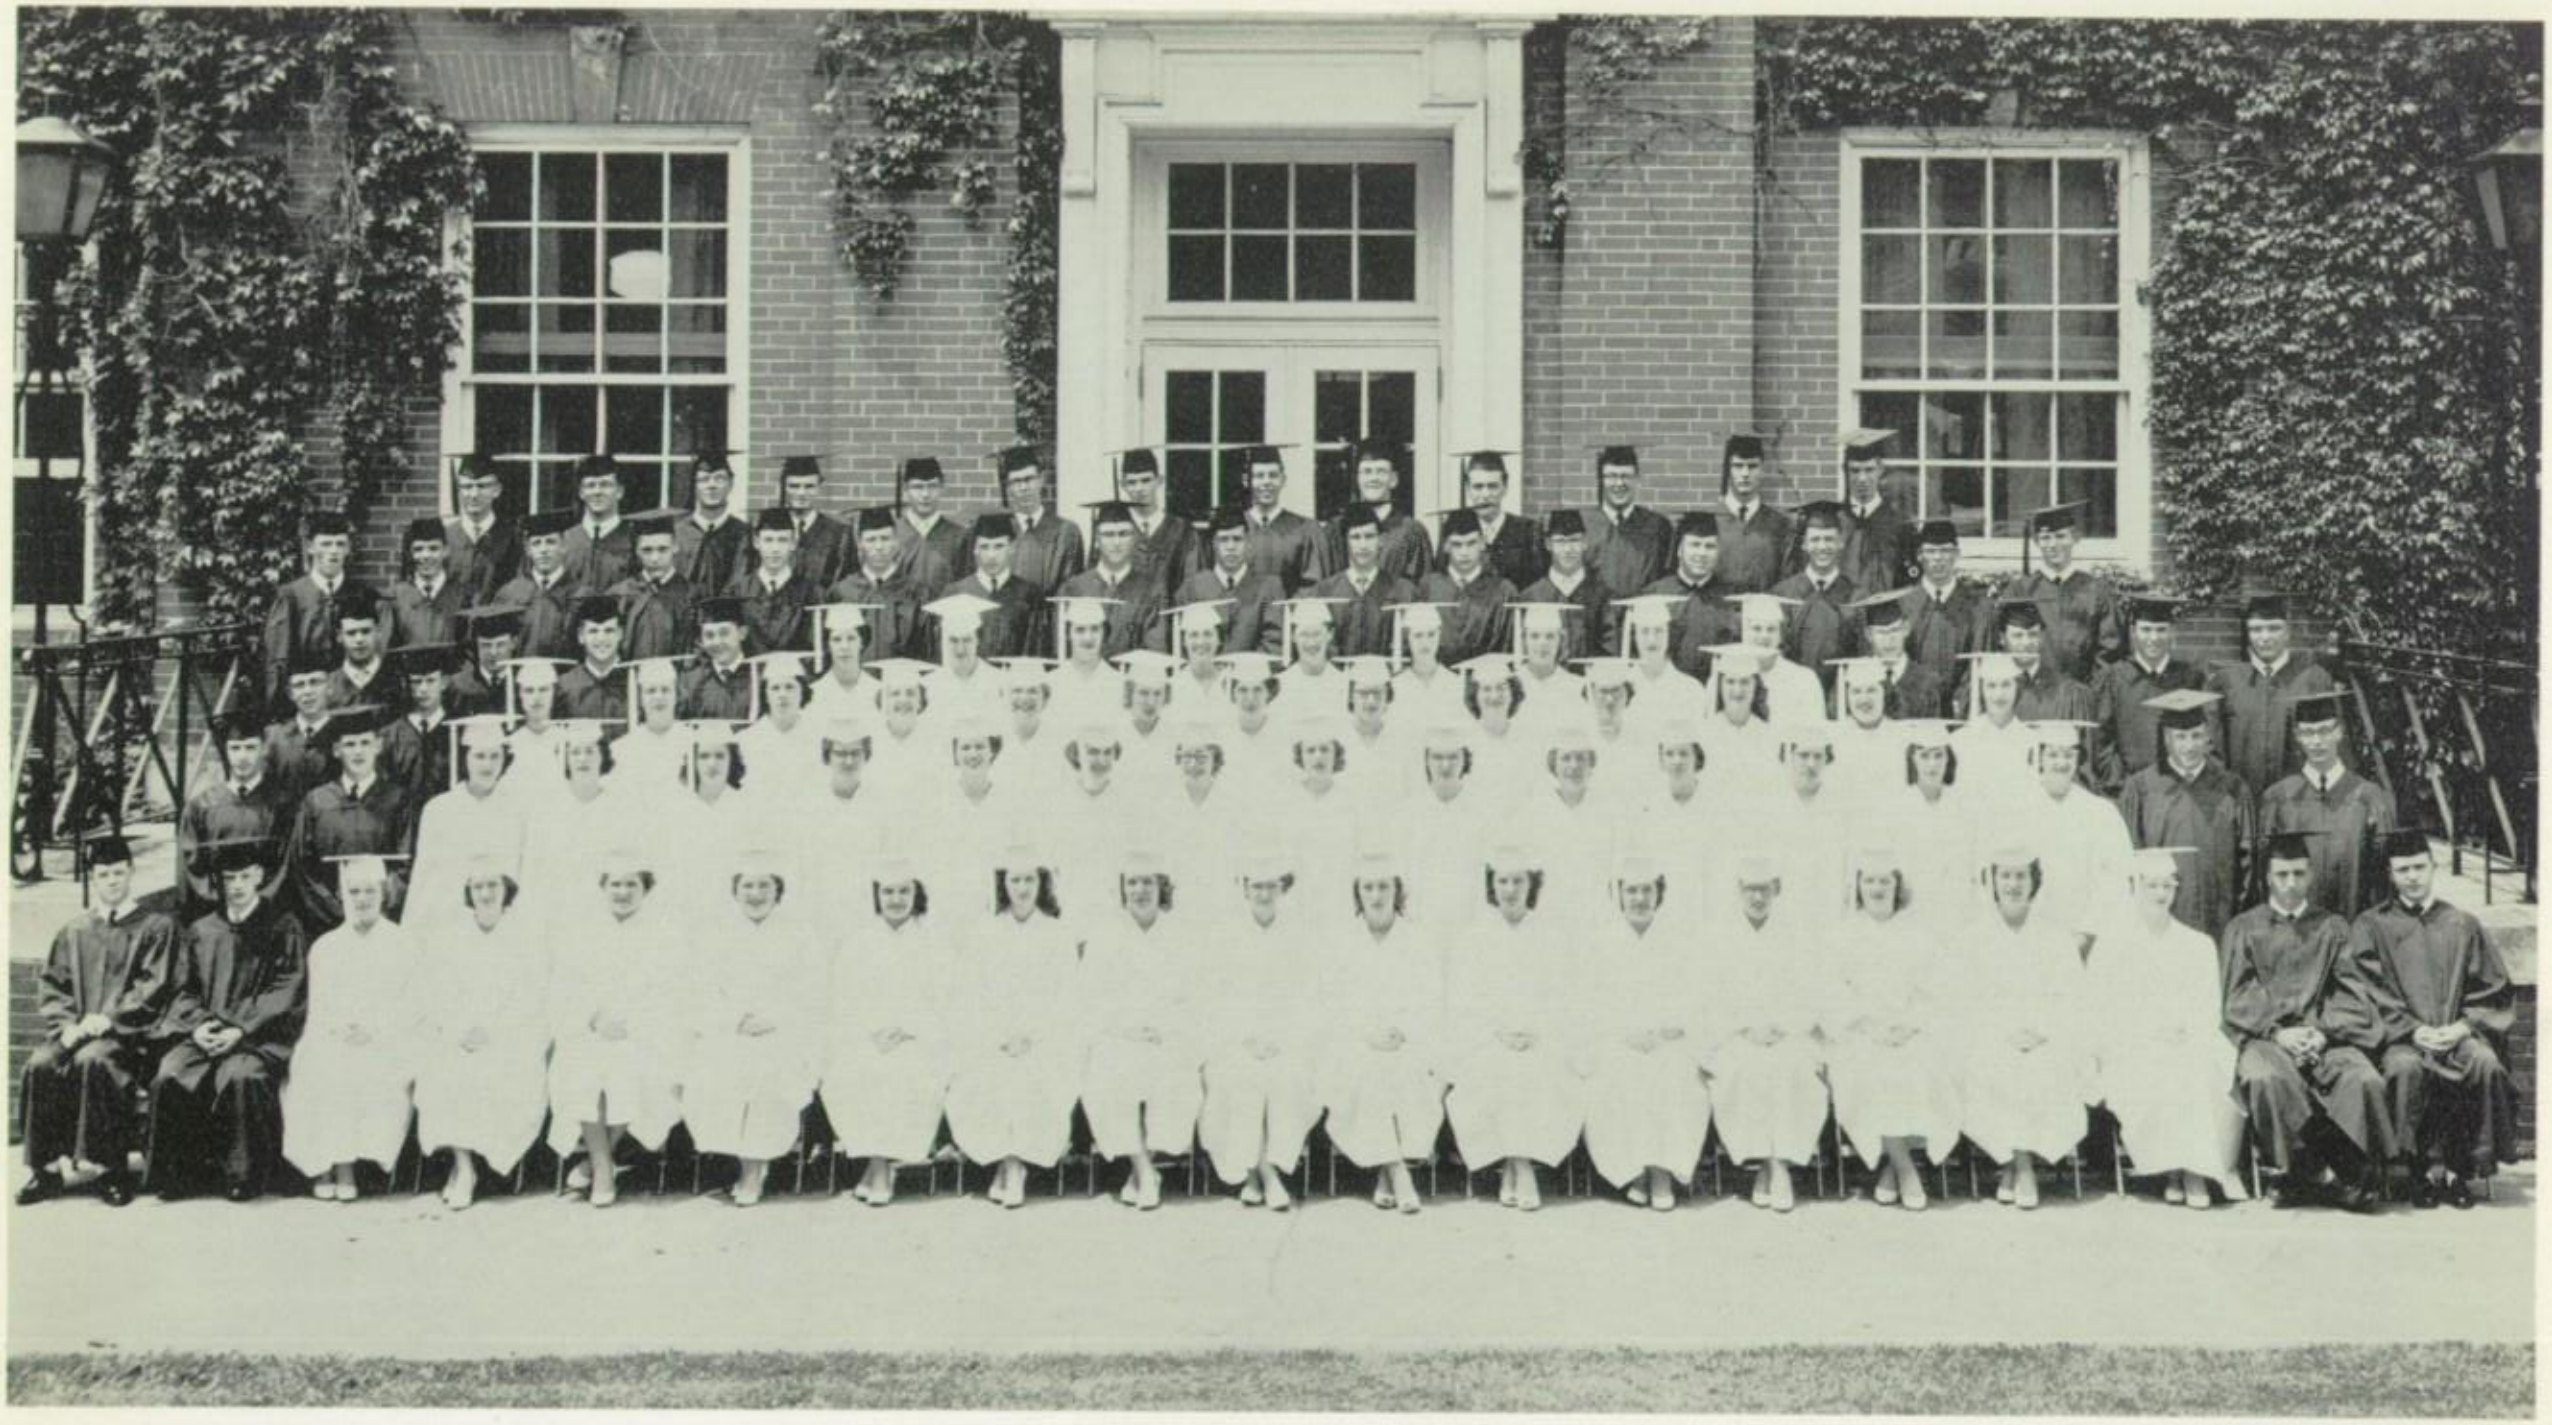
"Mid Summer Night's Scream"

Every night for six riotous weeks, laughter was heard in the gym, because those crazy seniors were at it again. This time the purpose of their frenzied activities was the class play presented October 27th, 1961.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

Herbie and Mike's love scene . . . Shing's chic rounded toes . . . that wild beast Flickner . . . Linda and John's regal march . . . that glamorous Betty Lou . . . Mike's thornbush - his thornbush, Mike's dog - his dog . . . Ray's pretty legs . . . Sharon's food addiction . . . Dave's thumping cane and wicked ping-pong paddle . . . Kay, the Tempest in a tea-pot . . .

Mr. C. Henderson directed us in this our largest success of the year. We are proud to announce at the end of this trying experience "What friends these mortals be!"



Class of 1961

Junior Class Officers

D. Weeter, B. Brown, F. McNany, L. Crouser, Mrs. Walkowski, advisor

The Junior Class of Rocky Grove High School will have fond remembrances of our Junior year. Our prominent junior officers are:

President ---------- B. BROWN
Vice President ---------- D. WEETER
Treasurer ---------- F. McNANY
Secretary ---------- L. CROUSER
Class Advisor ---------- MRS. WALKOWSKI

We could not call our junior year a truly successful one without acknowledging Mrs. Walkowski, our class advisor, whose never-ending help added to the class. We are grateful to her and all she has done to help us throughout our junior year. We also want to express our gratitude to Mr. Bowman who so expertly handled the direction of our Junior Play.

It's hard to realize that one day all too soon we will be out on our own, striving to attain the goals we have set for ourselves in high school. When we are on the "outside looking in" I'm sure we the junior class will always hold a feeling of pride to have been of the class of '63 and to have been a graduate of Rocky Grove High School.

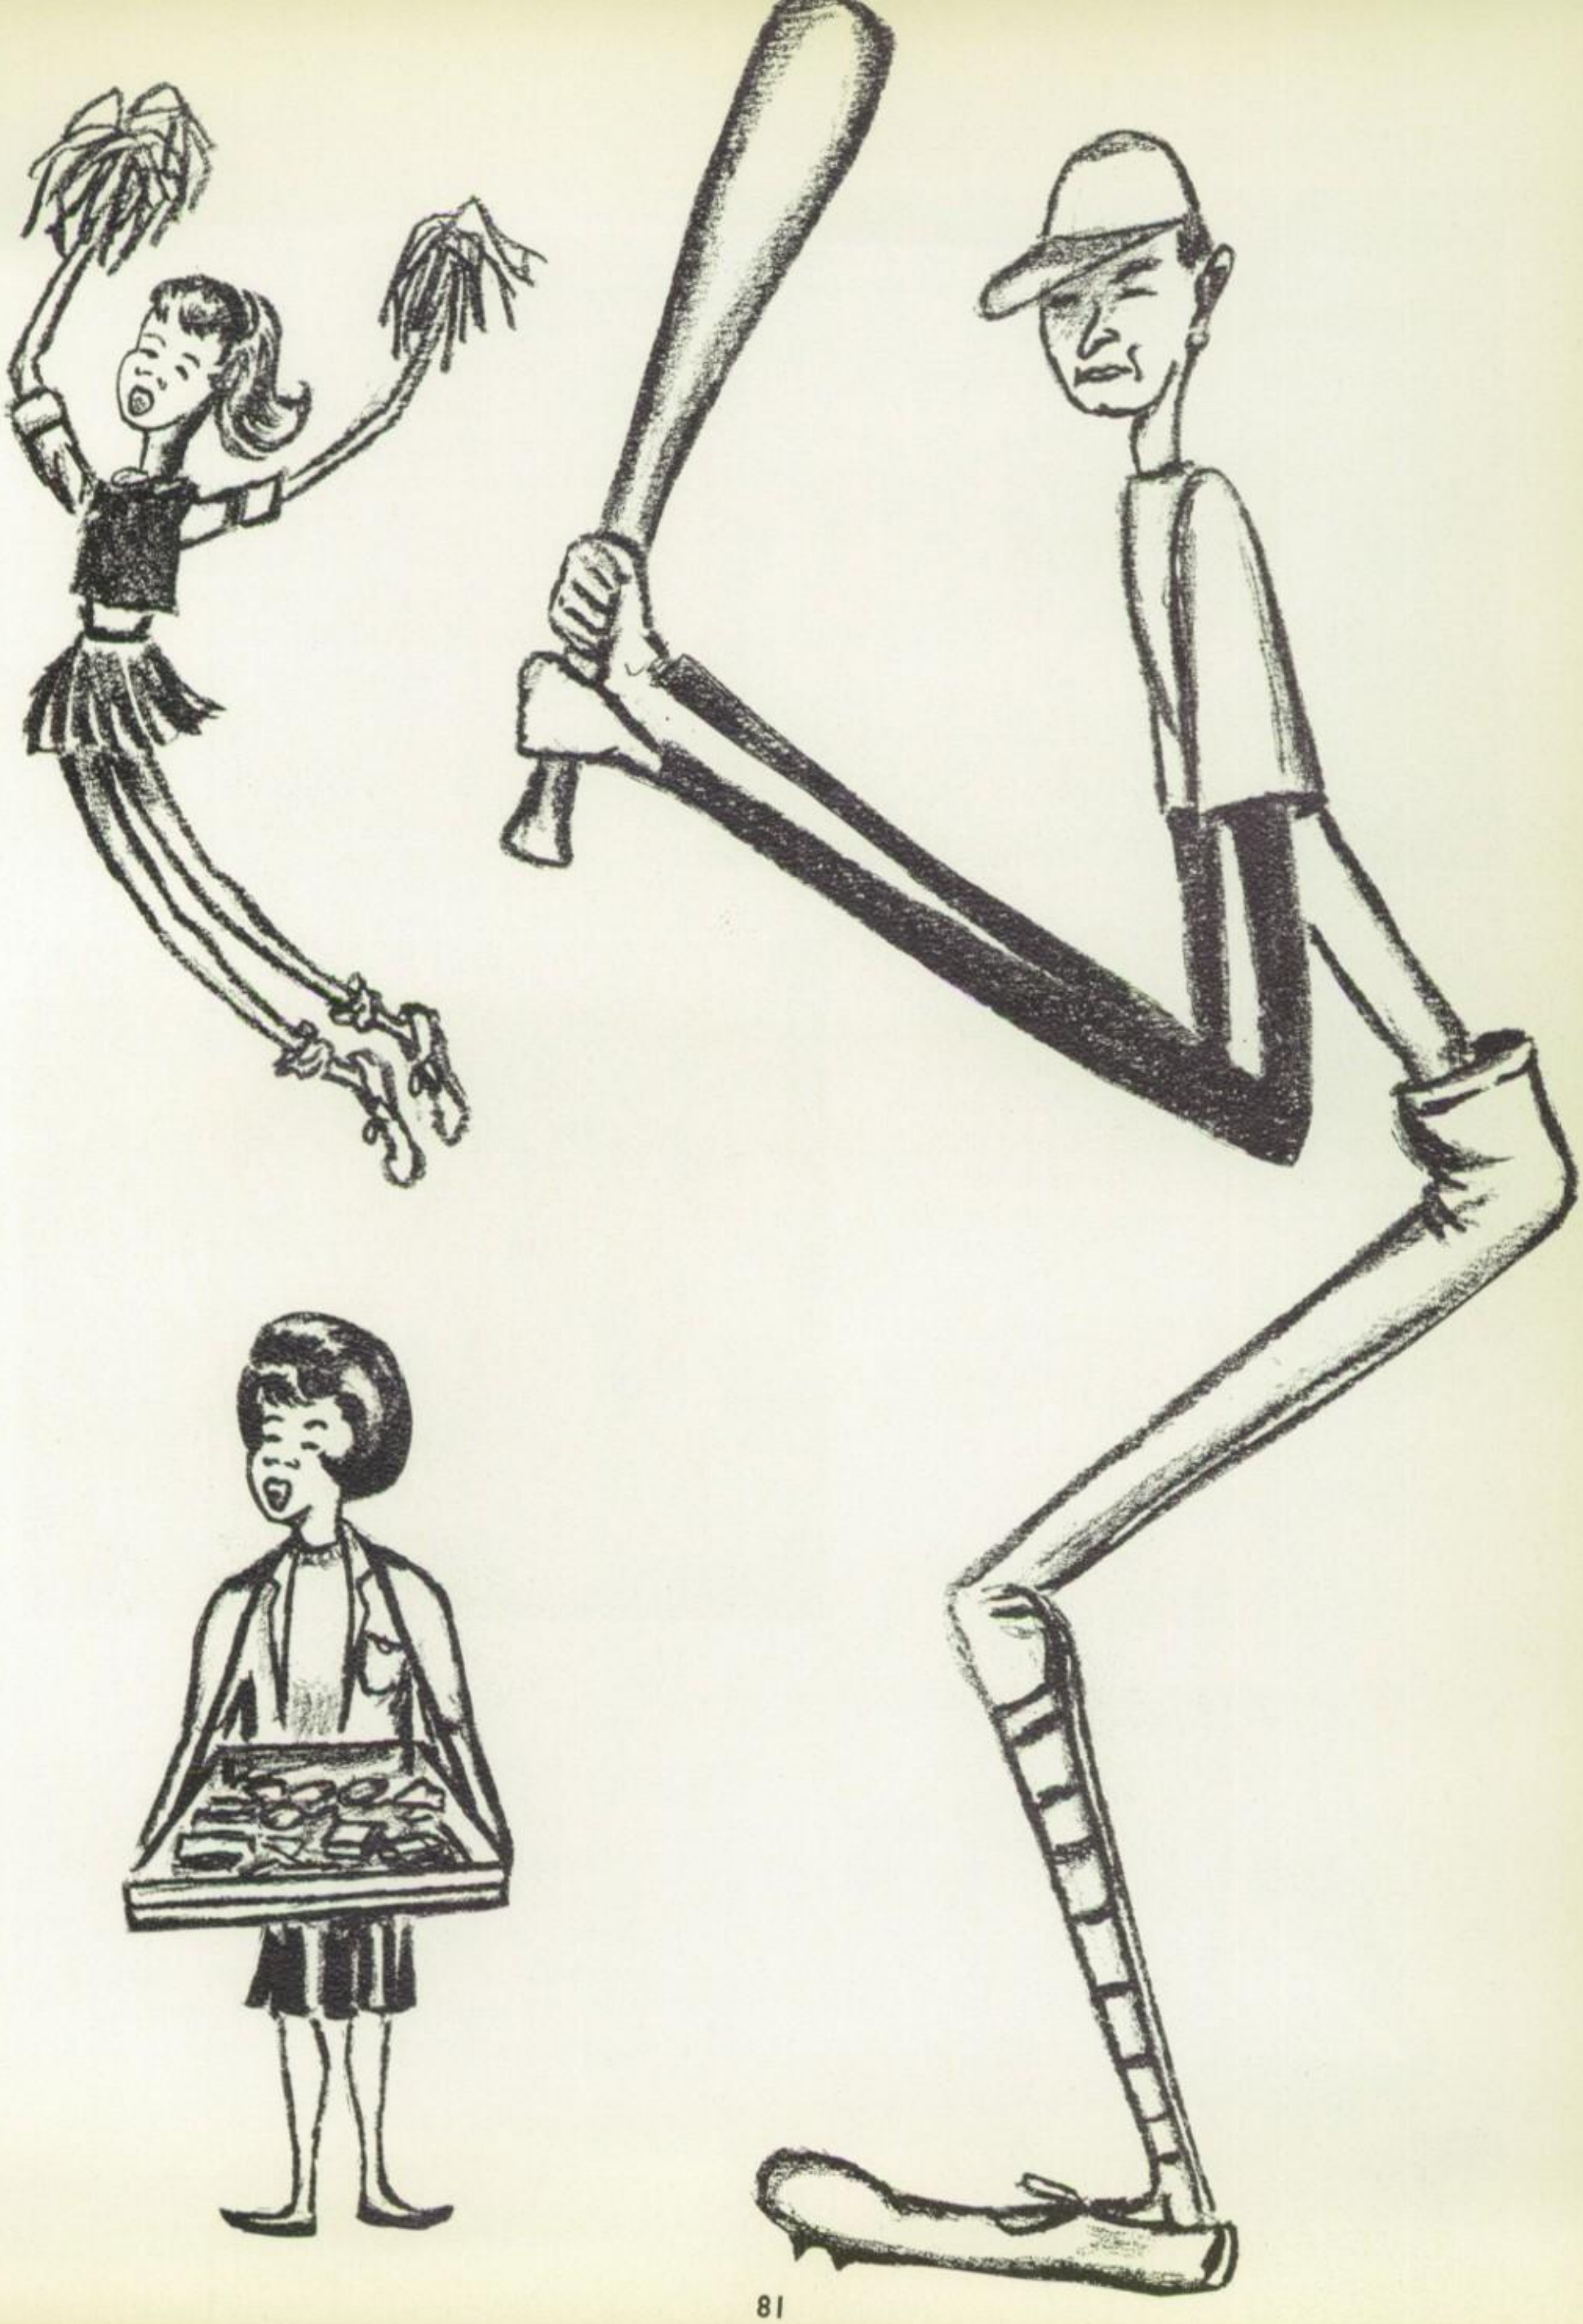
SPORTS



THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The Athletic Council is made up of school board members and school faculty. These men order all the supplies used for all the school sports. They also arrange an award system for these sports.

From left to right: R. G. Carter, R. Morrison, A. Feeley, C. Shankel

THE GIRL'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Girl's Athletic Association consists of girls from grades nine to twelve. They are under direction of Mrs. Davis. The extent of the membership is for girls from grades seven to twelfth. They meet every Monday and participate in different sports.

KNEELING, from left to right: D. Johnston, C. Moore, J. Sibley, B. Piel, C. Shingledecker

ATHLETIC MANAGERS

The Athletic Managers are school students who help in the management of the school sports. They are under the direction of Mr. Morrison. Linda Strawbridge sells tickets at the home games and does the bookkeeping. Faye McNanny helps Linda.

Sporty Seven

Sporty Seven consists of three seniors, three juniors, and one freshman. Each year three new girls are chosen to take the place of the three seniors. This year's president is Kay Flickner and the remaining seniors are Kay Lou Weaver, and Donna Johnston. The underclassmen are Pat Koziara, next year's president, Millie Minnich, Sheryl Graff, and Darlene Nelson. These girls sell candy at the home games and during lunch hour, with this money they sponsor the Athletic Banquet, held every year, to honor the athletes in the school. Mrs. Pfaff is the advisor of the club.

Usher's Club

A familiar sight at the home basketball games is the orange beanies identifying a member of the Usher's Club. These boys maintain order at the home games and clear the floor so the Friday dances may start on time. Mr. Holden is the club advisor.
